

For Immediate Release:

Contact: Juda Engelmayer

770-267-7015 or news@angelfoodministries.com

LAWSUIT DISMISSED – JOE WINGO REMAINS CEO OF ANGEL FOOD MINISTRIES

March 6, 2009, Monroe, GA: A lawsuit filed last Friday in the Walton County Superior Court by two former board members of Angel Food Ministries that sought to have the Wingo family removed from the helm and from the premises of the organization, was dismissed today.

At a brief hearing before Superior Court Judge John M. Ott, an agreement was reached and the suit was dismissed. Joseph Wingo remains the chairman and CEO and the Wingo family, who founded the ministry and devoted their lives to see it grow, remain at the helm.

Further details of the agreement will be released at a later date.

Amidst the news of the lawsuit, Angel Food Ministries continued to feed anyone who asks, reaching a milestone February 2009, distributing 530 thousand food boxes. It will continue serving a crucial need, feeding anyone who asks.

###